

Revitalize Your Self-Service Network

As the market evolves, out-of-date technology will hamper your organization's ability to accomplish strategic goals. We can help.

GET STRATEGIC WITH YOUR ROADMAP

You can do the bare minimum to avoid fines, or you can take the next step and enhance your network through a strategic technology revitalization program. You may even find that trying to upgrade your current ATM fleet to ensure compliance is costly and challenging due to aging, legacy infrastructure.

Diebold Nixdorf's CS Series self-service systems enable you to gain efficiencies and consolidate your upgrade efforts in one streamlined technology roadmap. Meet industry mandates while leveraging the availability of more secure, modern features to exceed your customers' changing desires.

Leverage Industry Compliance Deadlines to Add Enhanced Functionality to Your Network

PCI SHA 1 V3 or later devices End of Life

What is it?

Self-service devices were required to be converted from SHA1 to SHA256 RKL by Dec. 31, 2016.

Why is it important?

SHA1 was viewed by the industry as a weak, out-of-date algorithm. SHA256 is recognized as a stronger, more secure algorithm. Benefits include reduced security risk and PCI compliance.

PCI PTS 3 Sunsetting

What is it?

Effective April, 2020, PCI PTS 3 devices are no longer approved for new or moved installations. All devices purchased after this date must be compliant to PCI PTS 4 or later.

Why is it important?

PCI mandate to continue to enhance devices and technology towards higher security standards.

Encrypted Key Blocks

What is it?

Encrypted symmetric keys must be managed in key blocks for all ATMs by June 2023.

Why is it important?

This industry mandate will dramatically increase the security of symmetric keys that are shared among payment participants to protect PINs and other sensitive data.
